RACKO ADVENTURE WARNINGS

PLEASE CHECK THE TOTAL WEIGHT

All Car & Truck rack towbars have been developed in such a way that they can handle the maximum vertical axle load, called nose weight, of your car. When transporting your bikes, especially e-bikes, please keep the maximum nose weight of your selected Car & Truck rack towbar in mind. The total weight of the bikes and Car & Truck rack together must not exceed the maximum nose weight. The maximum nose weight is usually listed on the plate next to the socket of your towbar and is refer at your car's owner's manual. A nose weight that exceeds the maximum limit due to excess weight results in undue taxation of the car's suspension and towbar mount. In addition, it negatively influences driving capabilities and power steering.

RECOMMENDATIONS

Make regular checks

It's not enough to simply mount the bikes or cargo on your rack and forget about them until you reach your destination.

Make a final check before you set out on your journey to ensure the bikes or cargo are securely attached to the rack and that the rack is securely attached to the car or truck.

You should also stop and make regular checks along the way to make sure the bikes or cargo and the rack haven't become loose. Regular checks are particularly important if you're on a long trip.

Keep your bikes & cargo secure

Bikes & Cargo perched on the back, are in full view of anyone who might want to steal them.

To keep Cargo secure, lock them to the rack and lock the rack to the car. That way they will still be there when you return to your car.
